THE YEAR 1938

The Christian Year 1938 is a common year of 365 days. July 4th will mark the beginning of the 163rd year of American Independence; since the Reformation by Dr. Martin Luther it is the 421st. On January 19th it will be 375 years since the Heidelberg Catechism has been issued. Of the Jewish era it is the 5,699th after the creation of the world. Of the Mohammedan era it is the 1,357th since the flight of Mohammed. The year 2598 of the Japanese era, being the 13th year of the period of Showa, begins January 1, 1938.

The Time

The time given in this Year Book is that of St. Louis (38° 38' north latitude and 90° 15' west longitude, Central Standard Time). Eastern Time is one hour earlier; Mountain Time is one, and Pacific Time two hours later. The figures given for the rising and setting of the sun and moon are reckoned for the 40th degree of latitude.

The Seasons

Spring begins March 21st, 12:43 P. M.; Summer, June 21st, 8:04 P. M.; Autumn, September 23rd, 11:00 A. M.; Winter, December 22nd, 6:14 A. M.

Eclipses

During the year 1938 there will be four eclipses, two of the sun and two of the moon.

1. A total eclipse of the moon on May 14th. The beginning visible on the Atlantic Ocean except the Eastern part, in North America except the extreme Northern part, in South America, the South Polar region, in Eastern Australia and on the Pacific Ocean except the northwestern part; the ending is visible in the middle and western part of North America, the western part of South America, on the Antarctic Ocean, the Pacific Ocean, in Australia and in northeastern Asia.

2. A total eclipse of the sun on May 29th. Invisible in the United States. Visible in southern Africa, on the southern part of the Atlantic Ocean, and in the southern part of South America.

3. A total eclipse of the moon on November 7th and 8th. The beginning visible generally in Europe, Asia, the western part of Australia, on the Indian Ocean, in Africa, on the Atlantic Ocean, on the Arctic Ocean, in the extreme northeastern part of America, in the extreme eastern part of South America; the ending is visible in middle and western Asia, on the western part of the Indian Ocean, in Europe, Africa, on the Atlantic Ocean, on the northern part of the Arctic Ocean, in North America except the extreme western and northwestern part, and in South America.

4. A partial eclipse of the sun on November 21st and 22nd. Visible on the extreme western and northwestern coasts of the Americas, on the northern part of the Pacific Ocean, and in the extreme eastern and northeastern part of Asia.

Yet how rich is my condition, God and heav'n are still my own!

God hath sent His angels
To the earth again,
Bringing joyful tidings
To the sons of men;
They who first at Christmas
Thronged the heav'nly
way,
Now beside the tomb-
door
Sit on Easter day.

God is Love; His mercy
brightens
All the path in which we rove;
Bliss He makes, and woe
He lightens:
God is Wisdom, God
is Love.

Fight the good fight
with all thy might;
Christ is thy strength,
and Christ thy right;
Lay hold of life, and it shall be
Thy joy and crown eter-

Come, ye thankful people, come,
Raise the song of harvest-home!
All is safely gathered in,
Ere the winter storms begin;
God, our Maker, doth provide
For our wants to be supplied.

THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF THE GENERAL SYNOD

The experience of the first three years of the Evangelical and Reformed Church is irrefutable proof that it is possible for two denominations to unite first and work out their problems afterward. At the time of the merger in 1934 officers were elected and three committees were chosen: An Executive Committee to represent the Church in functioning until the next meeting of the General Synod; a committee to draft a Constitution and provide for the necessary charters; and a Judicial Committee.

The Executive Committee is functioning with as much harmony as any similar committee of an old-established denomination. The Constitution was drafted, with the whole Church cooperating, and it has been adopted. The Judicial Committee, which was chosen to be in readiness to adjudicate any dispute that might arise, has had nothing referred to it and has never held a meeting.

It is the business of the Executive Committee "to promote the work of the Church and to expedite the correlation and unification of the hitherto separate agencies and activities." Since the "R" group has no other governing body, the Executive Committee also performs the duties for that group which the Board of Directors and the General Council perform for the "E" group. It is made up of representatives from both groups, ministers and lay members, men and women, from all parts of the Church, chosen by the General Synod to serve until the General Synod in 1938 elects the General Council, which will take its place.

The Executive Committee feels that one of its principal duties is to advance the denominational work, the conduct of which is entrusted to the missionary and benevolent Boards and agencies. A large part of the promotional work is done through the Executive Committee's sub-committee on Correlation and Promotion, which is made up of members of the Executive Committee and of representatives of the Boards and agencies. This committee has proven its value and its continuation is provided for in the By-Laws of the new Constitution. The Committee on Correlation and Promotion, through sub-committees, arranges for cooperative production of literature, illustrated lectures, posters and exhibits, and field work schedules and programs especially for the Kingdom

Service Committee of each District and Classis of the Church. A Temporary Tithing Plan has been sponsored by the Committee on Correlation and Promotion, through the Kingdom Service Committees, for the last six weeks of 1937. An attempt is being made to focus the attention of the entire Church upon the denominational work at the time of the Kingdom Roll Call during the latter part of November, for subscriptions to the Budgets to be paid weekly during the coming year.

Our Church is becoming increasingly Stewardship-minded. Our members are asked to give because they are Christians and are Stewards of what has been entrusted to them. The Executive Committee has expressed itself very strongly against our congregations using worldly, questionable methods for "raising money." Many thousands of our people study the principles and practice of Christian Stewardship and write essays or make posters during the Stewardship Period, from January 1 to March 15.

The Boards of Home Missions and of Foreign Missions, of Christian Education, and of Ministerial Pensions and Relief, are cooperating and are planning their work in terms of the future, after the Constitution is declared adopted next year. Much of their work is even now on a united basis. The men's work has already been merged and the women's organizations are drawing closer and closer together.

The support of the missionary and benevolent causes has been somewhat different in the "E" and "R" groups. After the work of the corresponding Boards is all united, some problems will remain to be worked out. The Executive Committee has a committee of eight members which is actively studying the methods of apportioning the budgets required for the united work. With returning prosperity our members should quickly regain their former standards of giving and then go forward that our united Church may be more effective in Kingdom-building than the two former Churches were when separate.

Progress is being made in securing united statistics and having them more accurate. We increased our membership by more than 4,000 during 1936. Our giving for congregational expenses increased $178,000, but our gifts for benevolence showed a loss of $11,000.

The Committee on Hymnal is pressing forward with its work and expects to be able to present a Hymnal to the General Synod in 1938. The Committee on Book of Worship has its work well under way, but will not be prepared to make a complete report at the coming meeting of the General Synod.

All eyes and hearts are now turned forward in thought and in prayer to Columbus, Ohio, where the General Synod will convene on the evening of June 22, 1938.

THE COMMITTEE ON CONSTITUTION AND CHARTER

The Constitution and By-Laws adopted by the General Synod in June, 1936, and referred to the Classes and Districts, has been approved by more than the requisite two-thirds of the Classes and two-thirds of the Districts. A number of the Classes voted at the first opportunity, in the fall of 1936. Other Classes, at their spring meetings in 1937, voted favorably, bringing the number at that time to 47 of the 56 Classes of the Church. All but two of the Districts met in the spring of 1937 and all of them voted to approve. The Constitution has thus been almost unanimously accepted and will be declared adopted when the General Synod meets in 1938.

The year between the favorable vote of the Classes and Districts and the meeting of the General Synod makes possible the working out in advance of many things that must be attended to in the set-up of the united Church, on the basis of the Constitution and By-Laws. Knowing that the Constitution will be put into effect next June, the Boards and agencies can make all of their plans in terms of the new Boards and their duties.

The Church seems to be almost as well prepared for the Synods on which the Constitution is based as for the Constitution itself. Nearly all of the Classes and Districts have expressed their approval of the Synods proposed by the Committee on Constitution and Charter. Many are now impatient for their actual establishment. The General Synod instructed this Committee to make the necessary adjustments and it is likely that when the General Synod meets nearly all, if not all, of the proposed 34 Synods can be authorized.

The Committee is giving much attention to the matter of a charter for the General Synod and charters for the Boards, agencies, and institutions. None of our vested rights or privileges must be lost in the incorporations that may prove necessary.

NATIONAL MISSIONS

THE BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS—"R" GROUP

This Board is charged with the responsibility of founding and fostering new congregations. As such it forms the vanguard of the Church. It operates principally in the frontier. There was a time when the frontier was regarded as the remotest outpost of civilization and the Board established Churches there to give a Christian character to those newly developing sections of the country. How well this was done the records of the past clearly reveal. But the frontier is really that narrow fringe where that which is fixed and that which is just forming come together. The frontier has thus swung back into areas where different currents of life seem to meet. There is today a city frontier, a rural frontier, a racial frontier, an educational or cultural frontier, and it is the task of Home Missions to capture these new frontiers for Christ just as in days gone by it captured our geographical frontiers. Considered in this light the work of Home Missions takes on a new and a wider aspect than ever before.

The Board of Home Missions ever seeks to bring aid to the most needy, the least able among our people so that all alike may have the privilege of Christian worship and the blessings which our religion supplies.

More than 900 of our congregations at one time or another received aid from the Board of Home Missions. Today one-tenth of our congregations depend upon the Board for their very existence. One-tenth of our ministers receive at least a part of their salaries from the Board of Home Missions. Fourteen thousand of our members and 12,000 of our Sunday School children are supplied with Gospel privileges which are made possible through the work of Home Missions. This fact alone should awaken a deep interest in this work on the part of our entire constituency.

The Board is also ministering to a number of different nationalities in this country, such as the English, the Germans, the Swiss, the Russians, the Hungarians, the Czechs, the Japanese, and the Indians. It preaches the Gospel in 8 different languages.

Corinth Blvd. Church, Dayton, O., Rev. Robert R. Groves, pastor

It likewise aids missions in the erection of Church buildings and parsonages. It has a large revolving fund which during the last 50 years has been built up to almost $700,000 through so-called Church-building Funds which are loaned to the missions for building purposes. The large number of beautiful and well appointed Church edifices in many sections of the country were made possible by these funds which have come to the Board in sums of $500 and over. Each of these Funds bears a distinct name, either that of the donor or some name designated by the donor.

The Board invites members of our Church to give money in the form of annuities, which implies that the giver will receive a legal rate of interest for the same during his lifetime, while the principal sum remains the property of the Board.

In the support of its 140 missionaries the Board is almost wholly dependent on the apportionment which is fixed by the General Synod at $350,000 a year. When the Church at large fails to supply this amount the work will correspondingly suffer. In recent years due to the feeble response by the Church, the salaries of the missionaries could not be paid in full, and the Board asked for 20,000 persons to contribute each a dollar a month for 10 months. A substantial sum has already been realized, and more is to follow until the full amount of these arrearages be paid.

Cooperative work with the Board for Home Missions of the Evangelical Synod is being done in a dozen different places, and the Board is now developing plans whereby all of its work may in due time be transferred to the new Board of National Missions which the General Synod will establish in June, 1938.

THE BOARD FOR HOME MISSIONS "E" GROUP

The Board for Home Missions is the denomination's agency for the extension of the Church. Although Church people are not nearly as diligent in evangelizing as they ought to be, the membership as a whole is not indifferent to the fact that more than 60,000,000 persons in this land are not registered in any kind of religious fellowship, and that obviously many more than that number are not guided by Jesus Christ nor living as members of His Kingdom. Nor is the individual congregation content with recruiting new Christians for its own fold and from its own parish, but unites with the other congregations in maintaining missionaries in other places. Together the Churches create the Board for Home Missions to help formulate and carry out the home missionary task, as far as it can be done with the men and means provided. The Churches also elect a separate board in each of the districts of the Synod with whom and through whom the Central Board carries out its work.

In thus stating the function of this Board, it would seem as though the Churches provide all the interest and the funds, and that the Board has nothing to do but to appoint missionaries and to watch over their work. As a matter of fact, the pastors and Churches call upon the Board a very great deal to guide them in cultivating missionary interest. Thus missionary promotion and missionary education consume a good portion of the Board's time and money. Meanwhile it is the Central Board that acquires the most vivid sense of the need for Home Missions and becomes most keenly aware of the disparity between the accomplishment of the Church and the vast field of unreached persons and uninfluenced areas of life. As a result the tables are turned and it is the Board that is continually prodding the Church instead of the Church urging the Board on to greater accomplishment. This is an unhealthy condition. It seems exceedingly desirable that the membership itself should assume the initiative at least in dynamic zeal for bringing men into living fellowship with the Lord.

Programs of work as begun in the Missouri Ozarks and in city mission work seem like tapping rich veins of ore. These lines of work could profitably be greatly enlarged upon if the Church would furnish more men and means. As far as numbers of people to be reached is concerned, it is particularly the large city that interests the Board at present. The Evangelical Federation of St. Louis is well organized and engages ten persons on full time. Buffalo has made a beginning and is planning more and better work. Other cities where the Evangelical and Reformed Church is strong are also studying their fields.

From a missionary point of view the Church must above all seek to establish places where she may preach and teach the Word of God in public and in private. Where such places can maintain themselves, much has been gained. Wherever necessary the Board must pay all or part of the missionary's salary. This function of the Board is of utmost importance for the extension of the Church and of the Kingdom. The "E" group is at present supporting 111 such places, assisting in maintaining about 95 pastors.

In addition to the work thus far mentioned, the Board conducts an interesting Mission on lonely Madeline Island in Lake Superior, about 14 miles from Ashland, Wisc., and also among the sea-food workers at Biloxi, Miss. It also supports the Immigrant and Seamen's Mission at Baltimore.

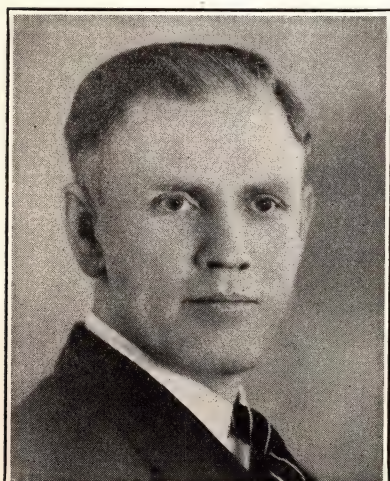

During 1937 a new book entitled: "Beside All Waters," was issued jointly by both "E" and "R"

Hardage School in the Ozarks

Boards. It was written by the General Secretary of the "R" Board, the Rev. Charles E. Schaeffer, D.D., and it deals with the home mission work of both groups. It has been very well received.

In this year also the Missionary Education department as participated in by the Boards of Foreign Mission, Christian Education and Home Missions as well as the Women's and Men's Organizations of both groups of the Church was re-organized and given a new Director in the person of the Rev. D. D. Baker.

INTERNATIONAL MISSIONS

INTRODUCTION

When the General Synod adopted the new Constitution and By-Laws it included a statement on the scope of International Missions, as follows: "It shall be the duty of the Board of International Missions to promote and administer the missionary work of the Church beyond the bounds of the United States and Canada." Thus in the light of our Church's conception of the task of International Missions we may truly say that it is world-wide and includes the "uttermost parts of the earth," i.e., India, Japan, China, Honduras, and Iraq.

INDIA

General. Few people locating India on a map realize how large the country is. Its area of 1,805,332 square miles makes it roughly as large as that part of the United States lying west of the Mississippi River. India is 40 times as large as the State of Pennsylvania; 44 times the size of Ohio; 32 times as large as Illinois, 26 times as big as Missouri, and about 6½ times as large as Texas. The population of India, according to the latest census taken in 1931, is 351,000,000, whereas the population of the United States was approximately 125,000,000 in 1930.

Our Field. The field of the Evangelical and Reformed Church lies in the division of Chhattisgarh, the most easterly division of the Central Provinces. The most direct railroad line between Calcutta and Bombay passes through our field from east to west. Our mission field has an area of approximately 12,000 square miles and a population of approximately 1,500,000.

The religious census of 1931 listed the various religions in India according to their strength in the following order: Hindus, 238,330,912; Moham- medans, 77,743,928; and Christians, 6,296,763. The census of the Evangelical and Reformed Church carried out at the close of 1936 showed a Christian community of 6,351. Thus, one out of every thousand Christians in India is a member of the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

Miss Helen Mueller, new missionary to India

Our Mission Stations. The work of the Church is carried on from eight missionary centers, which, with their year of founding, are as follows: Bisrampur (1868); Raipur (1880); Baitalpur (1886); Chandkuri (1897); Parsabhader (1894); Mahasamund (1907); Chandrapur (1932); Khariar (1923), and Tilda (1928).

The Church. The Church in the India field has always been an integral part of the Evangelical Synod of North America. As the India Mission District of the Synod, it was represented at the General Conferences of the Home Church. By a unanimous vote the India Mission District has decided to merge with the United Church of Northern India. As soon as full approval by the Home Church has been received, the merger will be put into effect.

Indian Workers, Tilda Hospital; nurses, druggists, attendants

The growth of the Church during the past year has been a most encouraging one. An increase of 657 could be recorded. Almost every station recorded an increase, with the largest increase at Chandrapur, Raipur and Bistrampur.

New Workers. During the month of January, 1937, Miss Helen Mueller was sent to the India field to augment our missionary force in this field which now numbers 34.

Additional Equipment. During 1937, two large and imposing buildings were added to the equipment of St. Paul's Highschool at Raipur. These buildings were the gift of the Evangelical Women's Union. With this additional equipment St. Paul's Highschool is ready to meet the requirements of the day in a splendid fashion.

Prospects. Prospects for Christian work in India are brighter today than in years. Large groups are being influenced by the Gospel and contemplate turning to Christianity for the satisfying of their spiritual needs in Jesus Christ, our Lord. The prayers of the Church are solicited for our missionaries, workers, and Christian congregations.

JAPAN

While there is some work in and around the city of Tokyo, the activity of the Japan Mission is concentrated in the six northern provinces of Japan known as the Tohoku, with the city of Sendai as its center. Our Japan Mission is the predominating Christian influence in northern Japan. The Mission is associated with the Church of

Dr. Teizaburo Demura, President, North Japan College, Sendai, Japan, and Family

Christ in Japan, which is a union of all the Presbyterian and Reformed forces operating in Japan.

One thing cannot be over-emphasized at present and the Church at home should know and realize its significance. In these days of rampant militarism and selfish nationalism the Japanese Christian brethren deserve and should have our love, sympathy, prayer and support.

Miss Gertrude Zenk, new missionary to China

In general the Japanese Church is well established and on the way to self-support. But the day of withdrawing our missionaries and our support has not yet arrived. Rather is this the day for reinforcement and increased support that the results of 50 years of missionary work may be conserved and preserved. The Japan Mission finds its foundation well laid and may now turn its attention and effort to building on that foundation a self-supporting, self-propagating, self-organizing Japanese Church.

Evangelistic Work. There are two evangelistic fields in the Japan Mission, one in the north and one in and around Tokyo. The work in this Tokyo field has been transferred to the Tokyo classis of the Church of Christ in Japan, thus attaining one of the goals of missionary endeavor—that of turning over to the national Church the work which they are prepared to assume and support.

In the north a new evangelistic policy is being inaugurated by which the more advanced evangelistic work is being turned over to the Japanese Churches with the idea of self-support in the near future. This will release the missionaries for pioneering in new fields as yet untouched by the Gospel, especially in large unreached rural areas where the need is so great for everything Christianity can provide for the better life of body and soul.

Educational Work. North Japan College is the leading educational institution for young men of Tohoku. It furnishes the large majority of the Christian leaders of northern Japan. This year it has over 1,100 students and a faculty of nearly 100. Under the leadership of the new Japanese president, Dr. T. Demura, it is going right forward. Last year the Theological Seminary of the College was removed to and combined with the Nihon Shingakko, the theological seminary of the Church of Christ in Japan located in Tokyo. The outstanding need of North Japan College now is an adequate endowment to assure its future.

Miyagi College for girls has been for 50 years the leader and pioneer in higher education for the young women in northern Japan, and it still continues to hold that strategic position. With its student body of over 400 girls it sends out a stream of Christian womanhood into the life of the Church. The women leaders of the Churches are for the most part Miyagi College girls—women evangelists, Church musicians, kindergarten teachers and best of all, pastor's wives. A new chapel, provided by the Woman's Missionary Society, is in course of erection and will augment the Christian opportunity and influence of Miyagi College.

CHINA

The China Mission is located in the province of Hunan in the very heart of China. The two stations have been located at the cities of Yochow and Shenchow. But the ancient names of these two cities have been restored and Yochow is now Yoyang, and Shenchow is Yuanling. While the China Mission has experienced serious difficulties in recent years on account of political unrest, the year 1936 was one of uninterrupted and successful service. With increasing stability of government there has come an increasing spirit of friendship among the people of Hunan. With the head of the government and many national leaders earnest and avowed Christians, the outlook for Christianity in China is bright and China today presents an unparalleled opportunity for missionary activity. The work of the China Mission is associated with the Church of Christ in China, a union of some eighteen Christian bodies predominately Presbyterian and Reformed, and one of the most efficiently organized churches in the world.

Chinese colporters and evangelists

Evangelistic. The evangelistic missionaries and the Chinese pastors and evangelists have had during the past year one of the best periods of growth in recent times. It is to be doubted whether anywhere in the whole Church there has been a greater comparative advancement along all lines than in the China Mission. A few sentences from the report of the Committee on Evangelistic Survey and Project at the annual meeting of the China Mission set forth eloquently the evangelistic situation in our China field: "With the present day emphasis on nationalism our task is extremely difficult, yet the opportunities for evangelistic work are greater than ever. At a time when China's old religions are growing weaker, and when China is faced with ever greater problems, forces and dangers, the country's greatest need is for religious vitality. At the same time Christianity is being welcomed more than ever." The immediate need for our evangelistic work in China is two more missionary families and one woman evangelist.

Educational. The educational work of the China Mission has been prosecuted with great success during the past year. Instead of famine and flood of previous years, last year there were splendid crops; and with the increasing prosperity more

*Rev. and Mrs. J. K.
Kohler, new missionaries to China*

parents were able to send their children to school. As a consequence all of our schools have increased enrollment. At Yochow there are Huping Agricultural Normal School and Ziemer Memorial Girls' School. At Shenchow there are Eastview Boys' School and Chenteh Girls' School. All these schools are known as "middle schools" corresponding to our American high schools.

The China Mission also cooperates with five union schools: Yale-in-China High School for Boys, Fuh Siang High School for Girls, Central China Christian College, Ginling College for Women, and Central China Union Theological Seminary.

Medical. The medical work of the China Mission is carried on at David Schneder Hoy Memorial Hospital at Yochow and Abounding Grace Hospital at Shenchow. During the past year the authorities at each of these hospitals have been approached by provincial medical officials with the suggestion that they be definitely linked up with the health program of the government. Government officials assure the hospitals that this cooperation with the government program will not interfere with the religious work of the hospitals. With this new spirit of cooperation are bound to come great opportunities for Christian service.

HONDURAS

The Roman type of Christianity has been indigenous in Honduras for several centuries. Those who propagated it usually did so in the spirit of the Crusaders. It was the great objective to make the Church dominant and secure support for it rather than to commend Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord to the people through the gentle ministrations of love.

Christian missions, while thus finding the ground prepared for them, find also many prejudices and some enmity against organized Christianity. The message of our missionaries must, therefore, place Christ rather than the Church in the center of their preaching and endeavor to secure loyalty to Christ and His cause through the winsomeness of Christianity rather than by the power of authority.

It can be said with truth that our missionaries have endeavored to fill the land with the Gospel of Christ. Evangelism is in the very center of their planning and permeates every activity, be it educational, medical, or philanthropic. The educational work carried on in the Honduras field is important. The co-educational Grade and Normal School at San Pedro Sula and the Primary School at Pinalejo, together with the Theological Seminary maintained at the latter place, make available Christian education that meets all of the needs of our area.

The medical work has been in charge of a Deaconess nurse and has extended from the missionary centers up into the hills and valleys of the north coast area.

The present force of missionaries on the Honduras field numbers 12. The Rev. and Mrs. Elmer Gumper go to the Honduras field in the month of October, 1937. Honduras has not had missionary reinforcements since Sister Hulda Sturm arrived in 1928. The following stations are served by them: San Pedro Sula (1921); Pinalejo (1934); and Yoro (1934).

IRAQ

The evangelistic missionaries of the Evangelical and Reformed Church in the United Mission in Mesopotamia are located in the city of Kirkuk. The annual report says: "We have had the privilege of going forth undisturbed with our daily task of making Christ known. The people of Kirkuk seem to be realizing more and more the value of our book shop. This year, more than ever before, we have had the good fortune of making contacts with the nomads of the desert."

THE HOME BASE

Pursuant to the instruction of General Synod the officially designated representatives of the two Boards of Foreign Missions have organized a "Board of International Missions" to act in an advisory and preparatory capacity until the new Constitution is adopted by the General Synod and it becomes possible to organize and charter the new Board. The Board of International Missions has done much very valuable preparatory and fundamental work during the past year, and by the next meeting of General Synod will be in position to present a constructive plan and program for the new Board of the united Church.

By action of the General Synod in Fort Wayne the period from January 6th to the second Sunday in February is designated as a season set apart for foreign mission emphasis. All churches are requested to use this season as a time for careful study and special presentation of the cause of international missions. The second Sunday of February or some other suitable Sunday should be set aside as "Foreign Mission Day."

Rev. and Mrs. Elmer H. Gumper, new missionaries to Honduras

Both the Evangelical and Reformed Boards of Foreign Missions are happy to report that during the past year they have lived within their incomes, improved their financial positions, carried on their work with gratifying success and have received encouraging increase of support from the congregations. The home Church has been inspired by the broadening world outlook of new mission fields. The prospects for the year 1938 are bright and promising and the Boards of Foreign Missions bespeak from the Church its continued cooperation and loyal support.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

A year ago the Year Book and Almanac carried the news that the first administrative Boards of the Church to actually merge their work would be the Boards of Christian Education, (Board of Christian Education, Board of Religious Education, and the Evangelical League Board). When that statement was written the proposed merger of the work was still in the "planning" stage. Today, however, twelve months later, these Boards are now able to testify to a year of actual merged life—a year of thrilling cooperation, of undeserved progress, of great encouragement, but of still greater challenge. To have a part,—if only a small one—in building a new Church for a new world is a privilege which is not only singular but humbling.

The work of Christian Education in our new Church is now an established joint venture and among the various efforts of the past year to make it such, unquestionably the greatest has been the First National Conference on Christian Education held at Lakeside, Ohio, June 28—to July 1, 1937. With over 1,200 people from 27 different states in attendance, this meeting of kindred souls has done more perhaps than any other one thing toward establishing a united fellowship determined anew to make the Christian Church a virile force for building Christian persons and a Christian society. The greatest thing that can be said of this National Convocation is that the earnestness and the enthusiasm of all the folk who attended, and their personal recommitment to the task of true Christianity, did not end at Lakeside—in fact, it was only born there. The true worth of the First National Conference on Christian Education will never be measured, but its force in the lives of persons and in home Churches and in local communities will testify, through years to come, to its spiritual reality and virility.

But the Conference, great as it was, and great as it will prove to be, constitutes only one of the many projects of the comprehensive program of Christian Education to which our united staff has given itself. For alongside of such periodic national gatherings, in fact, hand in hand with them, is the ongoing program of summer schools and camps. In 14 different sections of the United States your Boards of Christian Education each summer conduct 23 various camps and schools enrolling some 2,000 different people ranging in age from boys and girls of 12 to men and women of four score years and ten. The hope of a new Church is as dependent today on its adequate training of leaders as it was 1900 years ago when 12 plain untutored fisherfolk constituted the first leadership training school.

But even camps and schools and conferences only scratch the surface of the Boards' broad field of educational work. For a more complete picture one must add: 1) the year round leadership training guidance in local Churches and community schools; 2) the publication of some 40 odd Christian Education periodicals and lesson materials; 3) a through-the-year youth service reaching over 200,000 young men and women; 4) a Christian Educational guidance for Adults of the Church; 5) a limited service for workers with children; 6) a free circulating book service making available to anyone anywhere a library of over 5,000 volumes of the best and latest helps in all phases of Christian Education; 7) a cost picture service of small size prints for a class room library or wall size framed pictures for Sunday School and Church; 8) a stereopticon slide service—the foremost library of its kind in the country—comprising over 10,000 Biblical and religious subjects; 9) a cooperative Missionary Education department prepared to work with local societies, Church Schools, and Churches; 10) the maintenance of an educational clearing bureau for any and all educational problems, with a current volume of almost 10,000 personal mail contacts annually; 11) Field contacts of every kind and description amounting to 626 different engagements for the year 1937; 12) Interdenominational and State work—cooperative ventures of many types.

Although the educational work constitutes these Boards' primary task, the Board of Christian Education has the responsibility of managing and operating its 13 story office building in Philadelphia. The Schaff Building comprises over 112,000 square feet of rentable office space and represents an investment of approximately a million and a quarter dollars. The Board of Christian Education also operates a book store and a Church supply house. Through this mail order business it serves over a thousand Churches, furnishing them with supplies and literature to meet their many and diversified educational needs. Jointly with the Board of Publications, the Board of Christian Education is also at present responsible for the publication of our merged Church paper, The Messenger.

The Boards of Christian Education through their United Staff stand ever ready to serve the constituency of the United Church to the limit of their ability.

A. R. Keppel, Executive Secretary.

MINISTERIAL PENSIONS AND RELIEF

BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF—"R" GROUP

*Dr. J. W. Meminger,
Secretary of Board
since 1920*

The first grants of Ministerial Relief in the Reformed Church in the United States were made by the Coetus of Pennsylvania, held in Lancaster, Pa., Oct. 18-24, 1752. The money for Ministerial Relief was given by the Church of Holland from 1752 to 1792, and amounted to approximately $2,278.65.

In 1773, the Coetus, also held in Lancaster, Pa., decided to establish the "Widows' Fund." This Fund was continued until 1810. Its benefactions were small and limited, but they nevertheless relieved the needs of a few widows, and gladdened their hearts.

The members of the "Widows' Fund" applied for a charter, which was granted by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania on March 26, 1810. The charter changed the name "Widows' Fund" to "The Society of Guardians for the Relief of Widows of the German Reformed Clergymen, Being Members of the Society." The income of the Society of Guardians proved insufficient for the requirements of a growing Church. The Synod of Pennsylvania struggled for years with the difficult problem of increasing the membership and benefits of the Society, which was finally accomplished by the Enabling Act of the Legislature of Pennsylvania in 1865.

This Enabling Act, secured on Feb. 28, 1865, changed the name of the "Society of Guardians" to that of "The Society for the Relief of Ministers and Their Widows of the Reformed Church in the United States." Heretofore benefits were given only to widows of ministers, but the Enabling Act extended the benefits to ministers as well as to widows of ministers, not only in Pennsylvania, but in any other States or Territories of the United States. The Society was composed of two classes of members: (1) Annual contributing members, who paid an initiation fee of $5.00, and $3.00 annually thereafter; and (2) Life members, who paid a total of $65 in one or two installments. The Society began with 9 or 10 members. The largest number of active members in any one year was about 500. The benefits were based on need, and were as large as the available funds warranted. In 1920 the Society was closed to new members. On March 31, 1937, there were 232 members. The annuitants numbered 79—25 ministers and 54 widows.

BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF

The Board of Ministerial Relief of the Reformed Church in the United States was established by the General Synod in 1905. The Board has done a remarkably fine piece of work for our aged and disabled ministers, their widows, and their minor orphan children.

During 1936 the Board gave $44,658.73 to 257 Relief annuitants, of whom 83 were ministers and 174 were widows of ministers. These annuities are paid out of the apportionment received and other sources. The total paid in Relief annuities from 1905 to the close of 1936 was $890,870.03.

During 1936 the Board also paid $30,504.97 in Sustentation Fund benefits to 209 beneficiaries of the Fund, of whom 68 were 70-year ministers, 37 disabled ministers, 99 widows of ministers, and 5 orphans of ministers. From the time the Fund was started in 1917 to the close of 1936, the Board paid $150,066.16 to 256 beneficiaries. The total annuities and benefits were $1,040,936.19.

The finances of the Board are in excellent condition. For this reason the Board can pay all of its obligations promptly. The investments could have been sold for $132,492.28 more than were paid for them. No bonds are in default. The rate of interest at cost is 5.06%. The overhead expenses in 1936 amounted to less than 1% of the total assets.

The "R" Board of Ministerial Relief and the "E" Board of Pension and Relief are negotiating for the consolidation of their work under the new Board of Pensions and Relief. They are working upon (1) A plan to safeguard the rights, property, and benefits of each member of the two pension funds; (2) A new Pension Fund; (3) The continuation of the same annuities to the Relief annuitants of each Group; (4) A charter and by-laws for the new Board; and (5) The transfer of the money, property, accounting, and office of each of the two Boards to the new Board.

THE BOARD OF PENSION AND RELIEF—"E" GROUP

Rev. J. Abele, Chairman of Board, 1910-30

What a grand thing it would be if all the ministry might be like the great leader of Israel, of whom the Scriptures say that "he was an hundred and twenty years old, but his eye was not dim, nor his natural force abated." Of course this would be rather hard on the younger generation of preachers who are entering the ministry, but what a problem it would solve for us in the care of the older pastors and their widows. But then again, would the Church of Jesus Christ ask to be relieved of this ministry of love and appreciation? I hardly think so. As the men who serve us in the capacity of preachers, priests, and prophets grow old under the strain of the task, we of the Church should feel the challenge of the duty to cheerfully and carefully provide for them at the sunset of life.

To this end the Board of Pension and Relief was established as far back as the year 1910, although efforts had been made along this line since the establishment of our Synod. But the real organization of our efforts came about at the General Conference in 1909, following which the set-up as we have it today was firmly established. In the past quarter of a century it has done a marvelous piece of Christian work; last year it paid out to 158 pastors, 261 widows, and 13 children the sum of $106,972. This money comes from the returns on our endowment fund, which now totals almost a million dollars; the premiums of the 900 members of the Fund, the special gifts to this cause from individuals in the Church, and also from the Thank-offering of the Women's Union, and the receipts from the Synodical budget. It is indeed an encouraging note to find that each year various members of our Church are not forgetting the Board of Pension in the designated gifts of their estates. These can be either memorials or simply designations or even specified gifts, as for instance, a memorial cottage at either of our Pastors' Homes, Blue Springs, Mo., or Bensenville, Ill.

We are mighty proud of our Pastors' Homes. Being probably the only Church in America which has taken this definite step in the establishment of these Homes, we have found them to be a source of deepest satisfaction and help. Here retired or disabled pastors, or pastors' widows with their families are given a modest but modern cottage, rent free for their sole occupancy as long as they remain. Four of these cottages have been erected through special gifts and will constitute abiding memorials to the donors. Can you imagine a more appropriate or useful memorial?

When the General Synod meets in June, 1938, the Board of Pension and Relief hopes to be ready to announce its union with the Board of Ministerial Relief of the Reformed group. Negotiations have been carried on during the past two years and plans are being made for a greater and better Board of the united Church. The cause is a most auspicious one; the service rendered is a continual challenge to greater efforts; the reward is that we have ministered unto those who belong to Him, even His servants in the vineyard.

"IN HAUNTS OF WRETCHEDNESS AND NEED"

One morning in July, during the past summer, the St. Louis Globe-Democrat presented to its several hundred thousand readers in Missouri and Illinois a full page of pictures showing the Vacation Church School activities of the Caroline Mission, Christian social center maintained by the Evangelical and Reformed Churches of "The City Surrounded by the United States" (see Messenger of July 29, 1937). Mr Joseph Wood, one of the many hundreds of young men who have been helped by this essentially religious social agency, and who is now a photographer on the Globe-

Democrat staff, was instrumental in getting this valuable piece of publicity in the interest of those who had befriended him ever since his early boyhood.

If it were possible to tell, black on white, how many men and women, to say nothing of children and young people, have been helped by the Caroline Mission, through the preaching and teaching of the Gospel and the regular ministrations of the Church, as well as through the many recreational, educational, social welfare and relief activities constantly carried on there for nearly 25 years, the record would surely be an imposing one.

Among the many who have made good are several women in responsible secretarial positions at the Synod Building, and in various departments of Eden Publishing House. One young Mexican who came under the influence of the Mission is now a practicing physician and an instructor at a medical school in Monterey, Mexico. Among the graduates from Washington University in June last, was a young woman from the Mission who, on a scholarship from high school, had completed the four years' work in three, making "straight A," and winning Phi Beta Kappa honors. What adds to this accomplishment is the fact that her two younger sisters had gladly given from their meager earnings as factory workers to enable their sister to complete her studies (while taking full responsibility for the family, including the invalid father).

Next April 25 years will have passed since some earnest and socially-minded pastors and laymen from our Churches in St. Louis established a Christian social center in the heart of a tenement district which neighboring Protestant Churches failed to reach. With the aid of devoted volunteer workers a Sunday School was opened in a rented building, and when the public schools closed a Daily Vacation Bible School was begun, through which the urgent need of both religious and social work over a large area was clearly revealed. From the beginning the undertaking enjoyed the hearty support of Eden Theological Seminary and the Deaconess Home and Hospital, students from the former supplying part-time leadership, while deaconesses served as visiting nurses and social workers, and a number of local Churches furnished volunteer workers and financial support.

In 1918 the work was placed on a sound and permanent basis when two brothers, from Bethel and St. Peter's Churches, respectively, generously enabled the Board of Directors to acquire, in the name of the Evangelical Synod, the buildings and real estate which the Mission now occupies. Modestly declining to have their own name used for their benefaction, they named it in honor of their sainted mother. During the years the work has steadily expanded, exercising a positive and wholesome influence upon countless thousands who were ministered to in some way or other for longer or shorter periods.

The increasing support on the part of St. Louis Churches also made it possible at this time to employ the first pastor-superintendent, the Rev. Mr. H. A. Auler, now missionary in Honduras, 1919-21. He was succeeded by the Rev. Aug. E. Binder, now pastor of St. Paul's Church, Seattle, Wash., 1921-27; the Rev. Wm. E. Scholze, now pastor of St. Paul's Church, Marlin, Texas, served in the same capacity from 1927-29, when the Rev. H. J. Damm, the present pastor was called. In 1924 it became necessary to erect a new building, to be used as chapel and auditorium, with a gymnasium underneath, and in 1936 a home had to be secured for the pastor, who had heretofore occupied the second floor of one of the buildings; this step was necessary in order to gain much needed office space, as the Mission had also become the headquarters for the federated Evangelical and Reformed Churches of the city.

Ten years ago there was established in connection with the Mission what is known as the City Mission work, which provides a Christian and social ministry for thousands of Protestants in all the public institutions of the city. This work, which is partly financed by the Board for Home Missions, has from the beginning been under the supervision of the Rev. J. W. Varwig. Through "Light for the Dark Hours," edited by the Revs. Varwig and Schultz, patients are given suitable devotional reading matter and led toward a deeper prayer life. The total staff of both branches now number 10 full time employees, besides W.P.A. and N.Y.A. help and a large number of volunteers. Approximately 2,000 people are reached weekly in each branch of service.

A 20-page pamphlet entitled "Caroline Missions and City Missions" may be had gratis from the Rev. H. J. Damm, 1821 Hickory St., St. Louis, and a 16-page pamphlet entitled "The Gospel in Haunts of Wretchedness" may be ordered free of charge from the Board of Home Missions, 1720 Chouteau Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

WOMEN'S UNION

Looking back to a year of blessings as well as one of adjustments, the Women's Union rejoices in the further advancements of its objectives.

The Sixth National Convention brought new enthusiasm, high resolves, loftier aims, and a wider appreciation for Women's Union work. Officers chosen at this convention for the ensuing quadrennium are: President, Mrs. Hugo Schuessler; 1st Vice-president, Mrs. Wm. J. Kennel; 3rd Vice-president, Mrs. J. C. Voeks; 4th Vice-president,

Mrs. T. Wobus; Secretary, Mrs. Wagner; Treasurer, Mrs. O. Brummer. The 2nd Vice-president will be chosen by the Board of Directors. The 2nd Vice-president, Treasurer, and Secretary take office in 1939. Changes also occurred in the office. In June, the Rev. H. L. Streich, who has served as Executive Secretary for the Women's Union for the past 15 years, resigned. Miss Lee Schumann, who served as office secretary for 10 years, also severed her connections with this office. Our good wishes go with these faithful servants. The undersigned has been called to fill the position of Executive Secretary, and Miss Luella Meyer serves as office secretary.

Special emphasis has been given to the Thank-offering and the Sustaining Membership in the past year with gratifying results. The year 1938 brings with it a continued promotion of the objectives of the organization through all its Departments of Work. The Christian United Adult Movement adds much to the emphasis of the objectives of the Department. Parent Training, for instance, which is an educational feature in the Women's Union, is being given added emphasis in this new approach to the educational program of adults. Through the Reading Course and the Monthly Program, the emphasis of the Christian United Adult Movement "to develop all areas of Christian Life" is being furthered. With the Woman's Missionary Society, the Board of Christian Education, the Commission on Evangelism, and the Commission on Social Action, a correlated program of education has been created.

Out of the resolutions of the national convention come the projects of a "Fellowship in Direct Giving" and a personal visitation campaign. The former is a quiet fellowship and interchange of helps and encouragements among societies and pastors who wish to practice direct giving for Kingdom causes. The Women's Union, acting as the intermediary, gives its wholehearted cooperation and assistance to the same. With the women of the "R" group, the Women's Union is planning a personal visitation campaign which is to reach every woman in the Evangelical and Reformed Church, inviting her interest in Larger Kingdom Service.

Community life, with all its problems as well as opportunities for betterment, is the particular task of the Christian Citizenship Department. It will promote a study of the community and its needs, searching for a greater cooperation with the social and other secular agencies of that area.

The Mission Study brings particular opportunities to acquaint the constituency with the Home

Home for the Aged, Upper Sandusky, Ohio

Mission task of the "E" and "R" Church through the study of "Beside All Waters" and in the Foreign Mission task, by promoting the study of the books on the Moslem world and on India.

These objectives, together with those usually promoted, are a broadened vision and a loftier idealism which the Women's Union endeavors to bring to the lives of all the women of the Church.

In merger matters, the Women's Union and the Woman's Missionary Society are finding more common ground annually. This organization adopted the Plan of Union at the national convention. The educational features of the two organizations are rapidly being merged. This year the personal visitation campaign is an added united effort. The next step is a Merger Convention, toward which the womanhood of the Church is looking with a great deal of enthusiasm.

Elsa Reichenbach, Executive Secretary.

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY

With June 2, 1937, the Woman's Missionary Society of General Synod rounded the turn into its 50th anniversary year. The date of organization was marked with an appropriate Service of Appreciation prepared for the local societies. A large proportion of the 785 societies entered with enthusiasm into this first service of the anniversary. For this event they had been prepared. In order that the local societies might share, with understanding, in the anniversary of the General Society, their cooperation had been stimulated over a period of more than a triennium through the monthly programs, the general literature, prayer calendars, and other channels of promotion. The anniversary of the date of organization was further marked by the June Outlook of Missions being made an anniversary number and the June 17 issue of The Messenger, a recognition issue. The 50th anniversary will reach its completion on June 2, 1938, in connection with the Triennial Convention, May 31 to June 4 in Grace Church, Akron, Ohio. On Thursday, June 2, of that week, love gifts and thank-offerings will be brought. In the evening the historic pageant, commemorating the spirit underlying the work of the Woman's Missionary Society, will be given in Grace Church, in which the General Society was organized.

The Cabinet, which met in Cleveland, May 26-28, 1937, had the satisfaction of hearing reports which seemed to indicate that interest in missions had turned slightly from ebb toward high. For example: An increase in membership by 173, making the total membership 20,706, distributed among 785 local societies, an increase in Thank-offerings of $4,334, a total Thank-offering from the Woman's Missionary Society, the Girls' Missionary Guild, and the Mission Band of $42,708. For the first time in a long period of years, an increase in the number of subscribers to the Outlook of Missions was reported.

To accomplish the purpose for which the Woman's Missionary Society was organized, there needs to be a healthy condition in each local society. This is maintained through the promotion of the Reading Course, the Every-member Visitation, the Fellowship of Daily Prayer and other avenues of service. Last year, from the Woman's Missionary Society and the Girls' Missionary Guilds 8,875 persons were reported as readers in the Reading Course, having read to the extent of 180,506 units. Most of the books count one or two units—a few count three. Of the Fellowship in Christ Prayer Leaflet, 35,000 were distributed, of Prayer Calendars, 13,235 were sold.

The extent to which the Woman's Missionary Society assists in the maintenance of the missionary enterprise of the Church can best be judged through the report of the treasurer. For this year, she reported a total of $107,268 contributed through the societies. The examination of her report is an interesting experience, if for no other reason than to see the number and variety of interests served by the Society. Of these, the largest amounts are distributed to the Indian School at Neillsville, Wis. Miyagi College, Sendai, Japan; for the support of deaconesses in Home Mission Churches; for the Japanese Work on the Pacific Coast, and for the promotion of evangelistic and educational work in Japan and China, with the sum of $2,000 to the United Mission in Bagdad. Some years ago the fund was completed to build an auditorium for Miyagi College, Sendai. Because of the uncertain financial situation, building the auditorium was deferred until this year. For this purpose, $25,000 was given to the Board of Foreign Missions. A special fund to the Board of Home Missions was in the form of the cancellation of a $5,000 loan.

Mrs. Edwin W. Lentz,
Director of the Educational Commission.

CHURCHMEN'S BROTHERHOOD

Men must be won for Kingdom service. They still decide the program of the Church and the policies of social and economic life. Thus if we want a Kingdom-centered Church and a Christ-like world, men must be challenged with the Jesus way of life and enlisted for Kingdom building.

Yet, while women and young people are thus challenged and enlisted for Church work, the number of men's organizations are comparatively few. Unless we harness the man-power of the Church, intelligently and actively in Kingdom building the Church will lag and limp. Men are still the one group in every Church that need to be more fully and actively enrolled in congregational and denominational enterprises and larger Kingdom service. The Churchmen's Brotherhood offers every pastor an effective technique for challenging and enlisting Churchmen.

OFFICIAL MEN'S ORGANIZATION

The following paragraph was incorporated in the constitution of the Church adopted at Ft. Wayne:

"The Churchmen's Brotherhood is the officially recognized organization for men, whose purpose shall be to develop and coordinate in our Churches through study, prayer, fellowship, and service the man-power of the Church for the cultivation of the Christian life and for the success of the whole program of the Church. It shall be administered by a Board of Directors consisting of 11 members, 3 pastors and 8 laymen elected as follows: 2 pastors and 2 laymen by the General Synod, one of each elected at each meeting; 5 laymen by the National Convention of the Brotherhood; one pastor and one layman from the Church at large by the other 9 members of the board. These members shall serve for a term of 4 years and be eligible for re-election for one additional term."

OUR CONSTITUENCY

There are 650 local organizations with 25,000 members, an increased interest in brotherhoods is evident. Local Federation number 23, and District (Synodical), 5.

Some Federations meet monthly, others quarterly, semi-annually, and annually. These gatherings give opportunity for fellowship, information, and inspiration. Helpful literature is also distributed. Many Classes have men's congresses which meet twice a year with hundreds of men in attendance.

ANNUAL PROJECTS

The Churchmen's Brotherhood promotes the following projects annually: 1. Family Devotions. We aim to have a Family Altar in every Brotherhood Home. 2. Lay-Evangelism. Brotherhoods are urged to enlist in evangelistic efforts. 3. Day of Prayer for Missions on Ascension Day, observed by some brotherhoods alone, by others with the women of the Church. 4. Undershepherd Service, a service conducted by the men in the interest of the ministry. Pastors welcome this unique service. 5. Men's Retreats by individual brotherhoods or federations. The following federations held Men's Retreats last year: Chicago, St. Louis, Missouri, South Illinois, New York, and Indianapolis. 6. The Brotherhood Reading Course. Annually we have selected pamphlets and books on devotional, missionary, social, stewardship, and denominational problems which men should face. 7. Father and Son Banquet Service. Such are quite generally held, especially, the banquet. But the service should also be held, when father and son attend divine service together. 8. Brotherhood Student Support Fund. Annually an appeal went to Evangelical Brotherhoods for a contribution toward the support of needy students studying for the ministry at Elmhurst College and Eden Seminary. (Theological students (R) are aided with funds provided by congregations.) 9. Stewardship Essay and Poster Contest. We cooperated in the annual Stewardship and Poster Contest for our Church.

Rev. W. R. Hartzell, Superintendent, Homewood, Hagerstown, Md.

The Brotherhood "Monthly Program," in use for 15 years, offers timely topics and practical activities for each month of the year. Brotherhoods without a strong educational program and challenging activities stagnate and die.

A treatmen of the monthly topic is published in The Messenger. Additional material is furnished in a "Monthly Topic Service," sent gratis to the presidents of local chapters. Where not yet used, we would urge a year's trial of this challenging "Monthly Program."

DEPARTMENTS OF WORK

To carry on its work and promote its objectives more effectively the Churchmen's Brotherhood has created the following Departments of Work: 1. Devotional Life and Evangelism, which promotes the cultivation of the devotional life of the members and encourages the winning of others to Christ and the Church. 2. Christian Stewardship Department, promoting the study and practice of stewardship principles. 3. Missionary Education and World Friendship, for the study and support of Christian missions at home and abroad. 4. Christian Social Service and Action, to promote the study and support of Christian measures and movements, especially those of our denomination, which aim at economic justice, racial friendship and world peace. 5. For the study of the history and administration of the Church and support of her activities.

To make it possible for men in Churches without a Brotherhood to affiliate with the Churchmen's Brotherhood a Membership-at-large was created by the Buffalo Convention. We welcome your application.

To save time and expenses the Churches and chapters east of Ohio are served by the Philadelphia office of the Churchmen's Brotherhood and those west of Ohio by our St. Louis office. Dr. J. M. G. Darms has charge of our Philadelphia office and Rev. H. L. Streich of our St. Louis office. We shall gladly serve you.

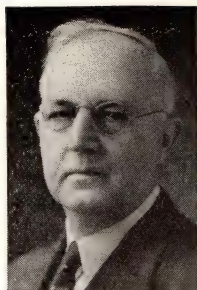

There are over 250,000 men in our Evangelical and Reformed Church. What a challenge to pastors and adult leaders to enlist these churchmen in active service of the Church, local and denominationally!

"Rise up, O men of God,
The Church for you doth wait,
Her strength unequal to the task,
Rise up and make her great!"

H. L. Streich,
Executive Secretaries.

The editors sincerely regret that their efforts to secure photographs of all the ministers who were called home during the past year failed to bring results in so many cases.

It has not been possible to include either obituaries or pictures of the following ministers, before it was necessary to close the forms. These will therefore be included in the Year Book and Almanac for 1939.

FORMS FOR BEQUEST

"E" GROUP

Evangelical people desiring to make a bequest in favor of the Evangelical Synod of North America, or any one of its boards or institutions, should be careful to do this in the manner prescribed by law. Where several boards or institutions are to be remembered, a separate paragraph beginning "I give and bequeath," etc., should be made for each. The following form is suggested where no lawyer is available for counsel.

I hereby give and bequeath to the Evangelical Synod of North America, of which Mr. F. A. Keck, St. Louis, Missouri, is treasurer, (for use of—insert here the particular Board which it is desired shall receive the use of the bequest, or if no preference is had, this portion of the bequest may be omitted) the sum of _____ dollars and the receipt of the Treasurer thereof shall be sufficient discharge for my Executor.

For list of Boards and correct names see pages 44-46.

The will should be attested by three witnesses (in some states only two are required) who should write opposite their names their places of residence, (in cities, the street and number). The following form of attestation will answer for every state in the Union: "Signed, sealed, published, and declared by the said (name of testator) as his last will and testament, in presence of us, who at the request of the said (name of testator), and in his presence, and in the presence of each other have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses." Some states require the will to be made at least two months before death.

Any information concerning such legacies or bequests should be communicated to the General Treasurer, Mr. F. A. Keck, 1720 Chouteau Ave., St. Louis, Missouri.

CHURCH REGISTER — "E" GROUP

List of congregations served by pastors of the "E" group according to districts. Those designated with * are not in formal membership with the Synod. The name of the town or city is given first, then that of the congregation, and finally that of the pastor. Corrected to October 15, 1937.

The † indicates that the post-office address of the pastor differs from the name of the place here given. Look up the pastor's address in the clerical register pages.

The Messenger

of the Evangelical and Reformed Church

Once upon a time, long, long ago, a man who was waiting for the arrival of some friends walked along the streets of an ancient city. He was a stranger there, but he was interested in learning what the people of that city were thinking about, and so he studied their places of worship. Acts 17: 16-34 tells all about it.

Today, on the streets of our large cities, one does not find heathen temples, nor statues of silver, gold or marble in honor of gods that have mouths but speak not, eyes that see not, feet with which they cannot walk (Psa. 115). We have gotten away from that sort of thing, thank God, and the thoughts of the endless throngs that move along the streets are occupied with other things.

What are these folks thinking about? Perhaps the newsstand on the corner could give some information on that point. There are great piles of story magazines, with gaudy covers designed to attract the attention of passers-by, and with titles so suggestive and alluring that the unthinking are always ready to spend a dime or a quarter to see what is inside. To be sure, practically all of it is fiction, but folks "get a kick" from reading it just the same, so they buy it, regardless. And what they buy makes them think about ever so many things: the races, gambling, crime, sex relationships, etc., etc. And the great piles of magazines of that type indicate the very large number of people who must be buying them.

Yes, there are many good and worth-while magazines there also, but one doesn't need to watch very long to discover that for every person who buys a good magazine a half dozen or more buy the other kind. The man who sells them merely "gives them what they want"; he does not care what goes on inside their brains as a result, nor what happens to their immortal souls.

But this is just what Christian people ought to be very much concerned about. Very likely there will always be plenty of folks buying the cheap, trashy stuff on the newsstands, but Christian people can at least discourage the reading of it, as far as their influence may reach, by not reading it themselves, and by cultivating the taste for and the appreciation of really good reading matter. "Where there is a will there is also a way."

And, by the way, the one absolutely indispensable periodical for any adult member of an Evangelical and Reformed congregation who wants to be 100% informed and up-to-date—and who doesn't?—in regard to what his Church is, what she stands for and what she is doing is The Messenger, of course. You can get it, if you do not already receive it, for less than a nickel a week, and your pastor will be only too glad to help you get it regularly. And every new reader obtained brings the goal of 50,000 readers a little nearer.

Managers

Rev. H. E. Gebhard
Superintendent

Bethany Home cares for the orphaned and dependent children of Eastern Synod. We have 228 acres of land, 2 dormitory buildings, 7 cottages, infirmary, school house, church, and farm buildings. During the past year all buildings except church and Applegate Lodge were placed under central heating system at a cost of about $19,000.00. The system operates automatically with stoker feed and thermostat controls in each building. We have not had a death during the present administration of 7 years.

Present needs of the Home to meet criticism of Health and Educational authorities require an approximate expenditure of $75,000.00.

Contributions have increased but not in proportion to the increase in cost of living.

We are entirely dependent on voluntary contributions and legacies for our support. Send all contributions direct to the Home.

The Evangelical Home for Children and Aged, Bensenville, Ill.

History

This Home dates its history from October, 1894. During 1927 a new home was built for children and in 1928 the old home was remodeled for aged men and women, giving us a present capacity of 100 children and 55 aged. This Home depends upon about 75% benevolence and, therefore, must be classed as a benevolent institution which is needy and worthy of the liberal support of benefactors.

APPLICATIONS

Applications, monies and provisions may be sent direct to the Home, Rev. William C. Krause, Superintendent and Financial Secretary.

THE BOARD

The Board consists of the following members: Rev. R. B. Fiedler, President; Rev. A. J. Munstermann, Vice-president; Rev. Arthur Selmikelt, Secretary; Mr. Wm. Katzberg, Treasurer; the Revs. H. Bloesch; H. E. Koenig; A. H. Bizer; Messrs. F. Hahn; Wm. Stauber; Dr. H. Wehringer; Mrs. A. Bromann, and Rev. F. W. Schroeder.

An anniversary booklet, telling all about the work of the institution has been prepared, and can be had for the small fee of ten cents.

The German Protestant Home for Orphans and Old People

West Grand Boulevard

Detroit, Michigan

Our orphans' and old people's home is situated in one of the most beautiful sections of Detroit. We cordially welcome Evangelical people who may come to Detroit to visit our institution. A Grand River car to West Grand Boulevard will bring them right to the home. The home is under control of the Michigan and Ohio Districts of our Evangelical Synod and is dependent upon friends within our Church for its support.

Our Home is able to accommodate 125 children and 50 old people. To meet our daily requirements is quite a problem at this time of social misery as the conduct of our institution is dependent more than ever before upon the generosity of our friends in the Synod.

We cordially solicit your interest and express our gratitude to the many friends who have heretofore supported us.

Bequests must be made in favor of "German Protestant Home for Orphans and Old People, c/o Mr. Chas. Reibling, Treasurer, 1433 Bagley St., Detroit, Mich." Other contributions will be gratefully received by the superintendent, Rev. F. Lueckhoff, 1852 W. Grand Blvd., Detroit, Mich. Phone: Tyler 5-8800.

The building shown above was recently converted into a dormitory; fireproof space was added to house elevator, stairways, incinerator, laundry chute and sun parlor, increasing the capacity of the building by 20 beds. The Home has the best modern equipment obtainable and affords much comfort to its guests. Another dormitory is urgently needed. When life is spent and earthly possessions can serve us no longer, would it not be appropriate to leave them to the homeless and helpless aged of our Church? What an opportunity for a precious memorial!

A MONUMENT TO 79 YEARS OF SERVICE

Our Home cares for children who because of the loss of one or both of their parents have been deprived of the care of their own home.

Proper housing, food, clothing, medical service, secular and Christian education, and other provisions for keeping our children physically, morally, and spiritually fit are provided. All of this service leads our boys and girls into happy, co-operative independent citizens, able to give to society, and to gain from it, as much real value as children reared in good private Christian homes.

Ninety percent of our monetary maintenance is charity. We therefore sincerely solicit your gifts and your bequests for our Home, which is NEEDY and worthy of the support of its friends.

*"Bless now, our sons and daughters glorious,
Give of thy wealth and self to speed them on their way;
Pour out thy soul for them in prayer victorious,
And all thou spendest Jesus will repay."*

HOMewood

"Old Folks' Home of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States, Incorporated"

1805 Virginia Ave.
 Hagerstown, Maryland

was made possible through the generosity of the late Mr. George C. Pearson, of Smithsburg, Md., who left the residue of his estate to establish such a Home. The Home was incorporated September 22, 1930, and is supported chiefly from the Pearson Estate.

Homewood is caring for twelve guests. Names of 70 are on our waiting list. Some cases are very needy. Our old people have supported our Church, now let us support them in their last years. Our pressing need is a new building—cost about $50,000. Splendid opportunity for a memorial.
